Don't forget to thank the people who help make your holiday season less stressful.

It's a busy time of year for many workers

For many workers, especially those in retail and customer service roles, it's a hectic time of year. That's also the case for delivery drivers. Many of us do much of our shopping online. That's a lot of packages. All those packa ges have to get delivered by someone, and as you can imagine, being a delivery d river is a stressful job with a lot of responsibility.

If you're having a lot of packages delivered to your home this winter, you m ay want to consider going out of your way to show appreciation. One option is to write a thank-you note to the people who bring your packages. Another way to sh ow appreciation is having snacks and drinks available for drivers when they drop off a package on your porch. If it's within your budget, you could give a t ip or another gift to show you care.

Say, 'Alexa, thank my driver' to send a $5 tip

It's the season to show appreciation

This time of the year is the perfect time to show appreciation to the people clo sest to you. But it's also an ideal time to thank those who help to make you r daily life easier. The best part is you don't have to spend money to show you care.

If money is tight, there are free ways to spread holiday cheer. This Amazon serv ice provides a simple, no-cost way to give thanks. You're not alone if you're looking for ways to save money. Check out our personal finance resources f or helpful tips.
