Although the games on offer are essentially the same online and offline, the major advantage internet casinos have is that they aren't restricted by space. Although some live casinos are huge, the floor space they have isn't unlimited, meaning they have to be selective with their games.

Thus, while a live casino will generally pick one or two variants of blackjack (often based on their personal preferences), an internet gaming room will offer a large variety of real money gambling games.

You should also expect to see more than the average percentage payout. Moreover, some live casinos will often be subject to local gambling regulations that can often restrict the style and format of a game.

These geographical factors don't have an impact on internet casinos as they exist in virtual space without borders.

When putting these factors together into a single platform it becomes clear that freedom is the main reason why online casinos are more profitable than live venues.

A player has more choice and isn't bound by certain local restrictions, meaning online sites can offer a greater range of high payout options on the real cash games.

Sports betting is gaining much popularity in particular.

3 Many bookmaker shops can be found in major cities

The authorities seem to adopt this stance too; despite not having locally licensed bookies, there are absolutely no reports of blocking access to operators or prosecuting players.

Offering 50+ sports to choose from, and with a 98%+ payout on the top football leagues, it sure stands out.

In addition, there are plenty of special bets and offers to welcome you onboard, plus various payment options to choose from.

There's no bluffing and no complex maths to remember, just cards, chips and intuition.

Minimum and maximum bet limits apply.

The dealer then deals two cards to each player and two cards face-down to their own position.

All players can use the community cards to make their own five-card hand.

At this point the dealer places a bet, equal to twice the size of the player's ante, and players choose to either fold - forfeiting their ante and any bonus bets they have placed, and taking no further part in the hand - or call, matching the dealer's bet.

The dealer must have at least a pair of fours to make a qualifying hand.

If the dealer fails to qualify, your call bet is returned to you.

Ante and bonus bets are paid out according to the table below.
