For a long time, Nevada was the only state that offered legal sports betting but that's changing fast since the repeal of PASPA in 2018.

Signing up to bet on sports online in Nevada is easy but it does require going t o a sportsbook in person to get approved.

You must be at least 21 years old and bring a valid government ID to authentica te and activate your account.

Your first step is to choose a mobile sports betting app available in Nevada, he re is a list of 100% legal mobile betting apps in NV.

The apps will not function when you step foot outside of Nevada, but keep in mi nd that many other states have their own sports betting apps and many times they are offered by the same sportsbook so check your state page here on WSN for sta tes that you know you will be traveling to.

Each state that has legalized sports betting has had to create some kind of watc hdog entity to police and enforce the revenue stream, but in Nevada where gambli ng has been legal for over a century there has long been oversight.

That said, the fact that Nevada was the first to decriminalize games of chance i n 1865 and the first to legalize gambling in 1931 was, and still is, a very big
