Not Legal Utah Sports Betting There is no sports betting, or gambling of any kind, in Utah.

Utah is so opposed to gambling that the code actually goes out of its way to say online gambling will stay illegal even if it is legalized at the federal level. You'd better head to any of Utah's six border states to experience anything resembling legal gambling or online sports betting promotions.

Utah is also home to the Utah Jazz of the NBA, which has been a staple in the league ever since the John Stockton and Karl Malone were one of the best duos to never win a championship.

That means the biggest operators in the industry, including DraftKings, FanDuel and Yahoo, can accept tournament and contest entries from within Utah's borders.
