The Current Online Sports Betting Situation in Wisconsin

Many states already had sports betting legislation in the works and were able to start accepting legal bets right away.

Must be at least 21 years of age to gamble.

While still legal to this day, there are no more venues in the state to bet at.

2007 The state tries once again to pass legislation to build and operate a state-run casino but it is rejected by then-Governor Kim Doyle.

Since Wisconsin has an extensive network of casinos already, it's unclear whether the state will choose to allow online betting.

However, at the moment all we know for sure is that legalized sports betting will be a topic of discussion at assembly meetings and among lawmakers at the beginning of 2019.
